

Mon 22 Oct 2012

RECHTSKULTUREN: Confrontations beyond Comparison is an initiative of the Berlin Research Network Recht im Kontext at the Forum Transregionale Studien, Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin.

The program is funded by the Land of Berlin (Senatsverwaltung für Bildung, Wissenschaft und Forschung) and associated with the Faculty of Law at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin.

RECHTSKULTUREN integrates, as a network of interdisciplinary research on law, systematic and area-specific approaches. The program explores the foundations and contexts of law in a plural world where competitive and complementary multiplicities of legal and normative orders are part of social reality.

Contact

RECHTSKULTUREN:
Confrontations Beyond Comparison
Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin
Institute for Advanced Study
Wallotstr. 19
14193 Berlin
Tel. +49 30 89001-254
Fax +49 30 89001-100
rechtskulturen@trafo-berlin.de www.rechtskulturen.de

Knowledge That (Net)Works

An Evening with the RECHTSKULTUREN Fellows 2012-13

RE

Knowledge That (Net)Works

RECHTSKULTUREN cordially invites you to the inaugural event where the seven new RECHTSKULTUREN Fellows 2012—2013 will introduce themselves and their research projects to the academic public:

- Marta Arena, legal scholar and social anthropologist, research project on Tunisian family law and its effects on women's lives
- Antonio De Lauri, legal anthropologist, research project on contemporary judicial practice in the tribunals of Kabul
- Will Hanley, historian, research focus on the institutional history of justice in Egypt between 1875 and 1950
- Stefan B. Kirmse, historian and social anthropologist, research focus on rules and legal reform in late imperial Russia
- Edyta Roszko, social anthropologist, research focus on legal and customary procedures in fisheries and cross-border fish trade in coastal frontier areas between Vietnam and China
- Supriya Routh, legal scholar, research focus on conceptualizations of labour law to operate in diverse jurisdictions amongst heterogenous informal workers
- Latif Tas, legal scholar and journalist, research focus on legal pluralism and alternative dispute resolution practices of Kurdish immigrants in the UK and Germany

Program

- 18:15 Welcome and Introduction
- Words of Welcome and Introduction by RECHTSKULTUREN Program Directors
- Words of Welcome by the Dean of Humboldt Law School, Prof. Reinhard Singer
- 18:30 First Round: Fellows present their projects at their own table. Open Question and Discussion Round following the presentation
- 18:50 Second Round of Project Presentations and subsequent discussions
- 19:15 Third Round of Project Presentations and subsequent discussions
- ca. 19:45 Reception

Registration

Should you be interested and would like to attend, please register until the 19th of October 2012 by sending an email with the subject header: "Knowledge That (Net)Works" to rechtskulturen@trafo-berlin.de.

Format

- The format of the event will be "speed networking" that allows for quick encounters and interesting discussions:
- Seven RECHTSKULTUREN Fellows introduce themselves and their projects simultaneously in 5-minute presentations at their own tables. As a participant, you will thus need to decide on a fellow and project that is of interest for you.
 - After the presentation, you will have the opportunity to introduce yourself and discuss your related questions with the fellow, find out common interests and network.
 - After 15 minutes, you will hear a gong, which invites you to change tables.
 - At the new table, the project presentation of another fellow and the subsequent discussion are repeated.
 - Overall, there will be three rounds of speed networking.
 - After three rounds, you are invited to join our reception that will allow for more conversations and in-depth discussions.

Venue

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin,
Juristische Fakultät, room E25,
Unter den Linden 9, 10099 Berlin