An Evening with the
RECHTSKULTUREN Fellows 2013/14

RECHTSKULTUREN cordially invites you to the inaugural event, where the seven new RECHTSKULTUREN Fellows 2013/14 will introduce themselves and their research projects to the academic public:

- José-Manuel Barreto: Re-contextualisation of Human Rights and Critical Dialogue: Human Rights beyond Eurocentrism
- Shakira Bedoya Sánchez: “Exhuming Truth”, Constructing Evidence. The Production of Forensic Knowledge in Post-conflict Somaliland and Peru
- Anne Clément: The Criminal Courts of Colonial Egypt and India (1862-1919): Legal and Normative Pluralism in Context and in Action
- Philip Liste: Transnational Human Rights Litigation and the Politics of Space
- Larissa Veters: Fragmented Sovereignty and Census Projects: The Workings of Law in the Production of Population Knowledge, Political Community and Statehood in the European Union and in Bosnia-Herzegovina
- Maaïke Voorhoeve: Constitutional Debates in Post-revolutionary Tunisia: Identity Construction and the Position of International Human Rights Law
- Ismail Warscheid: Islamic Jurisprudence and the Making of Social Order in the Central and Southern Sahara between the Seventeenth and Nineteenth Century (far South of Algeria, Mauritania, Northern Parts of Mali)

The format of this inaugural event will be “speed networking” that allows for quick encounters and interesting discussions. A reception is to follow.
